

.. IN THE SOCIAL REALM ..

With drifts of snowy petals drifting down, When winds are warm and sweet with apple bloom,
And anemones quiver in fragrance bees now hum;
For smiling still where late was April's frown, Abides young May and every hill rejoices, Wherever she doth tread the blossoms spring.
To welcome her did filmy woodlands ring With songs of birds, that to her raise their voices.

So in my heart I saw the balmy May In love I deemed that bore me dearest one, Whereat my rapture urged my hopes to stay
Because the winter of my life was vain; Yet meadows whisper sadly that in vain My heart shall hope its vernal love to gain.

—Walworth Sullivan, in May Metropolitan.

The old Latin name for the month of May classes it as the growing or blossoming month. In this month among the Romans were held the festivals of Honna Den, the beneficent goddess, and the feasts of the dead.

The Southern people follow the ancient custom so far in that May is their memorial month, when floral offerings and a solemn ceremonial at the graves of buried heroes keep alive in their hearts an undying remembrance of the brave departed who gave their lives to their country's cause and are enshrined forever in the love of those who survive and do not forget.

It would seem that May is prodigal of its blossoms with a purpose. It offers its wealth of flowers to the hands that gather them for wreaths and chaplets to beautify the quiet resting place of the thousands who lie in Southern cemeteries awaiting the summons of the evangelist's call and the command: "I say unto thee arise!" of their great Captain, Christ.

The first Memorial Day was held shortly after the Civil War. Its observance gave expression to the sorrow and affection with which the hearts of the Southern people were surcharged and almost at once its annual adoption became universal. It has invigorated the return of May with a deeper, sweeter, more sacred meaning since, and has set it apart from the group of its sister months as being fraught with something of tenderest significance than any other.

At the Woman's Club.

Miss Louise Williams has been fortunate in securing an unusually attractive programme for her musical at the Woman's Club to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

It will be rendered by Miss Isabel

To Give Excursion.

The Huguenot Society of Richmond will give an excursion to Williamsburg May 25th, which will offer a very unusual opportunity for Richmonders and strangers to visit the colonial capital of Virginia, as on that day the Washington branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, acting in conjunction with the colonial capital branch, will erect a monument on the site of the Ancient House of Burgesses.

The monument will be a large granite block. The arms of Virginia will appear in the front, with an appropriate inscription by President Lyon G. Tyler. On the bronze tablets at each side will be the names of the members of the Virginia House of Burgesses who at Raleigh Tarren, May 18, 1776, May 21st, and August, 1774, entered into associations against the importation or purchase of British manufactures. In all there were 111 of these signers, representing a number of the most famous men of the Revolutionary period. Their names are: Peter Randolph, speaker; Robert Carter Nicholas, treasurer; Edward Hacke Mosely, Jr.,

Hundreds of people in and outside the State of Virginia are descendants of the signers, so the interest of the unveiling cannot be overestimated. Many visitors of distinction will be present, among them Dr. Thomas Nelson Page.

The ladies of the Huguenot Society are bending their efforts towards making the excursion a memorable success in every way. Among those who are active in making arrangements are:
Miss Claire Guillaume, Mrs. William A.

Craines will, in every respect be impresive and inspiring, and thousands of the citizens of Richmond will assemble to do honor to the Oakwood Confederate dead.

The liveliest interest is felt in the fact that so eloquent an orator as Colonel William E. Cameron, of Petersburg, will deliver the annual address from the grand stand erected in Oakwood Cemetery. The procession will be entirely in charge of Lee Camp, with Major William McV. Evans as chief marshal.
The Rev. Dr. James P. Smith, of Union Theological Seminary, commandant of Lee Camp, will be master of ceremonies.
The programme will open with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Maxey, of Union Station Church, and will include beautiful musical selections under the direction of Professor Mitchell, the leader of Trinity Church choir, who has trained a band of singers for the occasion.

The Rev. Dr. Mears, of Hacker Memorial Church, will close with the benediction. All the Confederate organizations will be present and many prominent officials of the military companies of the city are expected to join in the parade which will start promptly from St. John's Church, corner of Twenty-fifth and Broad, at 1:30 P. M.

Central Committee.

The Central Committee of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will meet Tuesday, May 24, at 4:30 P. M., in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club will meet this week with Mrs. Spillman at No. 6212 West Grace Street.

this week with Mrs. Pattison at No.
601 West Franklin Street.

Woman's College Alumnae.

The Alumnae Association of the Woman's College will hold their annual meeting Friday afternoon next at the Richmond Hotel.

The meeting is important, and every member is urged to be present.

Dramatic Reading for the Benefit of Retreat.

Strauss's interpretation of Tennyson's beautiful poem, "Enoch Arden," with musical accompaniment, will be given Thursday evening next, May 5th, at 8:30 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Woman's Club, with Miss Eugenia L. Aus-paugh as reader, and Miss Grace Aus-paugh, her sister, as pianist.
The entertainment will be for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick. Miss Auspau's rendition of the poem and

Wissler—Stone.

A out-of-town wedding of interest, to take place Tuesday, May 24, at 5:30 o'clock, in the afternoon, will be that of Miss Mary E. Stone, daughter of Dr.
Robert E. Stone, of Winchester, Va., to Mr. Samne Wissler, of Ontario, Canada.
The ceremony will be performed in Christ Episcopal Church by the Rev.
Nelson P. Dame.

Musical Recital.

The pupils of Mrs. E. A. Robertson gave their April recital in the Woman's College chapel April 28th.
The selections were played from memory, and the pupils showed great improvement every way. The programme was as follows:

These are Bargain Days in Our Suit Department.

You may now select the cleverest Suits in our stock and buy them at prices that in many instances does not represent but a little more than half their actual value.

To the ladies with a Suit want and an inclination to save money, let this serve as a hint.

Chief among the very Exceptional Bargains—are some very swell TWENTY and TWENTY-FIVE Dollar Suits that are now marked down to $12.50 and $15.00 respectively.

To augment the above, we offer exceptional values in Brillantine

Walking Skirts at $2.98 and $5.00.

Those at $2.98 are easily worth $4.00.

They come in black, blue and gray, all-wool brilliantine, seven-gore flare, kilted from knee.

The $5.00 Skirts are just the thing for traveling purposes, made of light-weight, pin-check brilliantine, the kind that shakes the dust easily.

At $7.50 WE OFFER TWO MORE SPECIAL VALUES.

One of which is an

All-Wool Fancy Crash Skirt, pannel front, yoke effect front and back, tripple box pleated back, hips and back trimmed in buttons.

And the other is a

Kilted Taffeta, eleven gore pleated from knee, both garments are well worth $10.

Seasonable Silk Waists.

Among the late arrivals for our Waist Department are a goodly number of those $3.98 Black Silk Waists. Peau de Soie being a little heavy for summer wear, this lot was ordered made up of a fine quality Peau de Chine, which makes them more desirable for summer wear.

At $4.38 we show a very pretty Waist in black or white Jap silk; has fancy yoke formed of lace and pin tucks; fancy stock, lace trimmed.

At $5.00 three distinctly stylish Waists. ONE has half-inch tucks all across front, down back, and on sleeves.

ANOTHER has broad tucks finished in French knots.

AND THE THIRD is embroidered in the new button embroidery and made extra full.

ALL THREE COME IN BLACK AND WHITE.

VERY EFFECTIVE WAIST of fine quality Peau de Chine; pointed yoke formed of pin tucks outlined with scroll-work of lace, and finished in French knots—comes in black and white at $5.98

VERY DRESSY WAIST of best quality black Jap, round yoke, formed of black silk applique, bias folds and fagotting; finished on shoulders and below yoke in eight rows of shirring, deep cuff formed of folds and fagotting; an exceptional value at $7.98

Active Selling of Trimmed Hats.

As the news of our liberal price reductions on all Trimmed Hats becomes generally known, the demand fairly multiplies. By reason of the splendid variety of beautiful Hats, that our stock presents and the attraction of such decisive price reductions this sale earns the distinction of being one of the most important millinery events in our business career.

The Retreat is one of the oldest and most deserving of Richmond's charitable institutions. This fact and the additional inducement of an excellent programme will, it is hoped, attract a large crowd Thursday evening.

Memorial Service.

The annual memorial service of Oakwood Association will be held May 8th, at 8 o'clock P. M., in Union Station M.
E. Church.

Tired Feet.

If you have been walking about all day in a pair of ordinary Shoes it isn't any wonder that you are completely worn out when night comes.

When you think how many steps a woman has to take in a day, and that at every step she has lifted upon her feet three ounces of needless weight, you can see that by the end of the day she has lifted over a ton.

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is made of extra strong lightweight leather. It is three ounces lighter than any other Shoe for women.

Oxfords $2.50. Boots $3.00.
Specials 50c. more.
Fast color eyelets used exclusively.
